OLD BEN KENOBI V. 1.0
By Dogmogs

This deck is supposed to try and highlight Old Ben as he was in the movies, a dexterous old fart with a bit of punch and the ability to disarm and manipulate people. He's a defensive deck with three power attack (3 x JEDI MASTER) and defense cards. His defense cards, while not all encompassing like serentity and jedi block have either action (2xYOU CAN"T WIN) or card (1x IF YOU STRIKE ME DOWN) voiding capabilities designed to deter people from attacking him, while not making him invinsible.
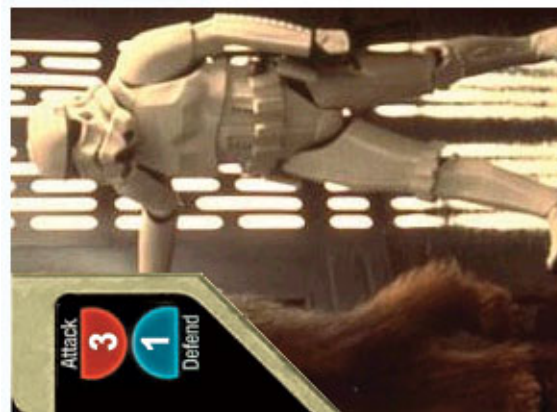

His discard three at random (A STRONG INFLUENCE AGAINST THE WEAK-MINDED) is his best card intended to powerfully disarm your opponent, and if used in conjunction with IF YOU STRIKE ME DOWN, can be a game winner. His movement cards (3 x FORCE STEALTH) are designed to allow Ben to rapidly penetrate troopers defenses so that Ben can instigate his attacks at will, similar to his stealthy movement around the death star. His CRAZY OLD WIZARD (x2) emulates his dispersal of the sandpeople and is good for creating distances between Ben and his opponents or reorganizing opponents. It is supposed to compliment force stealth to. This card is probably best in team games where old Ben can clump or disrupt opponents.

He has basic support; although the deckbacks have luke and han on the back they are just anonymous stormtroopers (disguised rebels) for the function of the game whilst sticking to the theme of the film. Cheers.

Hope you like it, or at least play it once or twice.
